

THE OPERETTA IS GETTING ALONG WELL

Young ladies and matrons in characteristic costumes will sell programs for the Free Kindergarten benefit Saturday evening at the Opera House. They will represent the different nationalities seen every day in our free kindergarten.

Miss Alice Macfarlane will represent America; Miss Irene Dickson, Hawaii; Mrs. F. H. Humphris, England; Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, France; Mrs. J. F. C. Hagens, Spain; Miss Soares, Portugal; Miss Elizabeth Chang, China; Mrs. Kiyo Ishida, Japan; Miss Neumann, Germany; Mrs. Alexander Hawes, Italy.

The programs will be sold for the small sum of ten cents. More will be always accented but no more than ten cents asked. So please bring along small change. Young ladies will usher the audience to seats and it is earnestly requested that people come early. The house will be full and it means time to get them seated.

Miss Martin wishes no flowers passed over the footlights. It interferes with the progress of the play and attracts the children's attention and they have been instructed to watch out for their own business, which is to keep their eyes out for their director.
